The California Courier (28 November 2025)

Three Armenians — Artyom and Grigor Azatyan, and truck driver Artur Terjanyan — have been sentenced to life imprisonment in the Crimea Bridge terrorism case. The verdict was delivered by the Southern District Military Court in Rostov-on-Don, Russia.

In addition to them, five other individuals — Oleg Antipov, Aleksandr Bilin, Vladimir Zloban, Dmitry Tyazhelykh, and Roman Solomko — also received life sentences, reports Sputnik Armenia.

They were charged with organizing a terrorist act and the illegal circulation of explosives or weapons. Solomko and Terjanyan were additionally accused of smuggling an explosive device.
