The U.S. Chamber of Commerce (USACC) will host a U.S. trade and business conference to mark the Chambers 30th anniversary, Azernews reports, citing USACC.

Scheduled to take place on March 10, the conference will bring together senior officials from government institutions of both the United States and Azerbaijan, as well as representatives of the business community, investors and the financial sector. The event will focus on discussions aimed at expanding economic cooperation between the two countries.

USACC views the conference as an opportunity to review achievements to date, analyze current trends, and shape a forward-looking agenda focused on strengthening bilateral trade, investment and innovative cooperation between the United States and Azerbaijan.
