18-wagon train carrying 979 tons of motor fuel departed from capital Baku, according to Azerbaijani state media, adding that delivery to be carried out via Georgia

Azerbaijan has sent another supply of petroleum products to neighboring Armenia, state media reported on Sunday.

Azerbaijans state news agency Azertac reported that an 18-wagon train carrying 979 tons of A-92 grade motor fuel departed from Bilajari station in the capital Baku toward the border village of Boyuk Kesik in northwestern Azerbaijan on Sunday.
