
GREECE REDEFINES TURKISH, BULGARIAN PROPERTY PURCHASES AS SECURITY ISSUE

- 05.02.2026

Türkiye Today (5 February 2026)

[...]

Greek national security agencies have launched an investigation into a surge in property acquisitions in Northern Greece by Bulgarian and Turkish nationals, according to reporting by Greek City Times, citing Bulgarian National Radio.

[...]

Although legal experts emphasize that these transactions comply with European Union regulations, Greek authorities have framed the issue as a potential national security matter, warning that an expanding economic footprint in border regions could carry longer-term strategic implications.

The framing marks a shift in tone. What had been discussed primarily as market activity now appears under formal security review.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: