Uzbekistan and Pakistan discussed concrete measures to increase bilateral trade turnover to $2 billion in the near future, Trend reports via the press service of the president of Uzbekistan.

The issue was addressed during talks between President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev and President of Pakistan Asif Ali Zardari held at the Aiwan-e-Sadr residence in Islamabad as part of Mirziyoyev's state visit to Pakistan.

During the meeting, the sides reviewed the current state and key areas for expanding multifaceted cooperation, including trade, economic, and investment ties, and emphasized the importance of strengthening the strategic partnership between the two countries.
