Azerbaijani President İlham Aliyev hailed the newly-signed Charter on Strategic Partnership between Baku and Washington as a historic milestone Wednesday, following high-level talks with US Vice President JD Vance in the capital.

In addition, the Charter on Strategic Partnership signed between the U.S. Government and the Government of Azerbaijan in this building yesterday also provides us with this advantage. This Charter is a historic document, Aliyev said during a meeting dedicated to the unified action plan titled, Azerbaijan's New Digital Architecture.
