Kazakhstans Energy Minister Yerlan Akkenzhenov, Kyrgyzstans Energy Minister Taalaibek Ibrayev, and Uzbekistans Energy Minister Jurabek Mirzamakhmudov have discussed coordination in water and energy cooperation, Trend reports via the Ministry of Energy of Kazakhstan.

During a meeting in Uzbekistan, the parties reviewed the current state and prospects of trilateral cooperation in the management of water and energy resources, as well as issues related to ensuring the sustainable and balanced operation of the regional power system.

Particular attention was paid to coordinating the operating regimes of generating facilities, complying with agreed water-use parameters, and developing joint approaches.
