"Russia and Serbia have developed media channels to achieve their goals. These activities were carried out to strengthen pro-Russian positions. Certain media outlets portray Montenegro as 'another Serbian state' and legitimize the Kremlin's policy. We also have certain academics who encourage this narrative," said the chairman of the European Parliament's Foreign Affairs Committee.

The closing of the chapter in the negotiations on accession to the European Union (EU) shows that Montenegro is committed to the future, and the focus should be on implementing reforms, said the Chairman of the European Parliament's Foreign Affairs Committee (AFET) David McAllister.

The AFET delegation is in Montenegro as part of a regional mission during which it will also visit Albania, and McAllister pointed out that this is the committee's first official visit to Podgorica and Tirana.
