Kosovo Prime Minister Albin Kurti has called for the establishment of a Special Court to investigate and try the killing of Bosnian civilians by snipers in the 90s.

According to him, it is said that Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić also played a role in the "Sarajevo Safari", where for a sum of money he could shoot Bosnian civilians from the hills surrounding Sarajevo, KosovaPress reports.

Kurti, at the second international scientific conference of the Institute of War Crimes in Kosovo, said that the so-called "yellow house" for organ trafficking in Albania has never existed and that it is part of Serbia's hybrid narrative against the KLA.
