
POLISH MAN DETAINED IN GREECE FOR SUSPECTED SPYING ON NATO SHIPS IN CRETE

-

13.03.2026

Militarnyi (13 March 2026)

Sania Kozatskyi

A Polish citizen has been detained in Greece on suspicion of spying on NATO military ships on the island of Crete.

According to Kathimerini, the man was detained on March 12 after police received information that he had allegedly been taking photographs of facilities at the naval base in Souda Bay.

A Polish citizen had been living for several months in a van on Marathi Beach, near the base used by Greece and the navies of allied countries.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: