As part of Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyans working visit to Switzerland, the official opening ceremony of the Republic of Armenias resident embassy in Bern took place on March 12. The event was attended by Ignazio Cassis, Head of the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs of the Swiss Confederation.

The Armenian national flag was raised in front of the embassy building, located in the heart of Berns historic district, a UNESCO World Heritage site. The national anthems of Armenia and Switzerland were performed, and following the ceremonial ribbon-cutting, the embassy was officially inaugurated.

Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan and Swiss Federal Councillor and Foreign Minister Ignazio Cassis delivered welcoming and congratulatory remarks during the ceremony.
