Massis Post (24 March 2026)

Negotiations between Armenia and the United States regarding the TRIPP initiative are proceeding without delay and remain on track, Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan stated during a parliamentary briefing.

Today, developments are becoming possible that even the most serious experts previously viewed with great skepticism. I will not take responsibility for predicting how likely a confrontation between Azerbaijan and Iran may be, Mirzoyan said, commenting on the regional situation.

He emphasized that Armenia is strongly committed to maintaining peace in the region.
