EU Observer (27 March 2026)

H.E. Ambassador Cai Run

2026 marks the opening year of Chinas 15th Five-Year Plan and also a new starting point for the next 50 years of China-EU relations.

At the beginning of the year, president Xi Jinping reached a series of important consensus with several leaders of European countries, charting the course and providing strategic guidance for the development of China-Europe relations.

In the face of a complex and challenging external environment, Chinas economy remains on a solid footing, with multiple strengths, strong resilience, and vast potential.
