
RUSSIA WARNS ARMENIA OF LOSING AIR LINKS IN CASE OF EU MEMBERSHIP

-

06.04.2026

Caliber (5 April 2026)

Russia has warned that Armenia could lose its air connections with Russia if it joins the European Union, according to a senior government official.

Deputy Prime Minister Alexey Overchuk said that such a scenario would stem from the current absence of direct air links between Russia and EU member states.

Thus, if Armenia becomes a member of the European Union, it will also have no air communication with Russia, Overchuk said in an interview with Channel One.

Devamı için tıklayınız.

Kaynak/Source: