Commerzant (6 April 2026)

We have expressed our readiness to continue the high-level dialogue and further deepen cooperation in various fields - Georgia firmly supports peaceful, constructive coexistence in the region and new initiatives. If necessary, we are always ready to make our positive contribution to the development of these relations, - Georgian Prime Minister Irakli Kobakhidze stated at a press conference held with Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev, who is on an official visit to Georgia.

As Kobakhidze noted during his speech, Georgia and Azerbaijan have repeatedly "proved that we are reliable and responsible partners".

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Mr. Ilham Aliyev for coming to Georgia. He is a dear friend of Georgia and his coming to Georgia is a special honor for each of us. I am pleased to have the opportunity to host you in Georgia and discuss issues of bilateral cooperation and the processes ongoing in the region. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you once again for your condolences on the death of Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, Ilia II, and for the sympathy expressed by you personally and the Azerbaijani people. We particularly appreciate this support.
