The Straits Times (15 April 2026)

Vietnams President To Lam met with Chinas leader Xi Jinping in Beijing on April 15, Chinese state media said, hoping to deepen ties he says are a top priority.

The visit is Mr Lams first foreign trip since the Communist Party leader was elected last week as president - the No. 2 position in Vietnamese politics.

He has called ties with Beijing a top priority but faces a precarious balancing act between the United States - Vietnams main export market - and the countrys largest supplier China.
