Greece and Albania moved to strengthen bilateral ties with the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) at the Delphi Economic Forum, focusing on investment development and the exchange of know-how.

The MoU was signed on Wednesday by Growthfund CEO Yiannis Papachristou and Albanian Investment Corporation (AIC) CEO Elira Kokona, in the presence of Albanias Minister of Economy and Innovation Delina Ibrahimaj, and other officials.

The agreement outlines cooperation across key areas, including the management and development of public real estate assets, innovation and artificial intelligence (AI), sustainable infrastructure, and the development of multipurpose exhibition and conference centers.
