The Straits Times (26 April 2026)

Beijing on April 27 slammed an EU plan aimed to bolster the blocs industries against fierce competition from China, vowing countermeasures if it is enacted.

The EU unveiled in March new Made in Europe rules for companies trying to access public funds in strategic sectors including cars, green tech and steel, obliging firms to meet minimum thresholds for EU-made parts.

The proposal, held up for months by wrangling over the measures, is a key part of a European Union drive to regain its competitive edge, reduce its industrial decline and stave off hundreds of thousands of job losses.
