Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan reiterate that Armenia is not an ally of Russia on the issue of Ukraine, AzerNEWS reports, citing the Armenian media.

The remarks were made in response to a journalists question regarding perceptions that the visit of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy to Yerevan was interpreted by some as an anti-Russian step.

"I have previously made statements on this topic. We have sent humanitarian aid to Ukraine, and I have said that on the issue of Ukraine we are not allies with Russia," Pashinyan noted.
