ArmenPress (4 June 2026)

Armenia and the United States have signed the framework agreement on strategic cooperation concerning the Trump Route for International Peace and Prosperity (TRIPP), which was initialed in Yerevan during Secretary of State Marco Rubios visit last week.

The Foreign Ministry released a video showing FM Ararat Mirzoyan signing the agreement on June 4.

Dear citizens, a few seconds ago, I signed the Armenia [] States framework agreement on TRIPP. As you remember, a few days ago it was initialed by me and US Secretary of State Marco Rubio during his visit to Armenia. And now Secretary Rubio has also placed his signature on the agreement, the document has been sent to Armenia, and I have now signed it on behalf of Armenia. With this, the remote signing process is complete, and the agreement is ready for ratification, the Armenian FM said.
