'Pace of progress depends on Serbia's own resolve,' Costa says in Belgrade.

European Council President Antonio Costa said Thursday that the EU's enlargement to the Western Balkans (*) is the bloc's most important geopolitical investment as he spoke in Belgrade, the capital of candidate country Serbia.

"For us, the enlargement, namely to the Western Balkans (*), is the most important geopolitical investment that the European Union is doing," Costa said during a joint news briefing with Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic.
