Pakistan's Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Monday thanked Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan for his "highly" supportive role in bridging a negotiated settlement between the US and Iran to end their war.

"I especially thank my dear brother, President of Türkiye Recep Tayyip Erdogan, for his highly supportive role and his support to our efforts...," Sharif said while addressing the National Assembly in the capital Islamabad.

He also appreciated Chinese President Xi Jinping, Saudi Arabia's Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, Qatari Emir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani and other regional partners for their "continued" support to Islamabad's months-long mediation.
