Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan attended a meeting held in the format of the EU Foreign Affairs Council at the invitation of the EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy.

The discussion, held in the format of a working breakfast, was attended by European Commission Vice President and EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy Kaja Kallas, EU Commissioner for Enlargement Marta Kos, and foreign ministers and representatives of EU member states.

EU partners congratulated Foreign Minister Mirzoyan on the democratic parliamentary elections held in Armenia and the victory of the Civil Contract party. They emphasized the EUs and member states support for the consistent implementation of the strategic agenda of the Armenia-EU partnership, as well as their political commitment to advancing Armenias European integration.
