Foreign Minister Wang Yi calls on SCO members to strengthen coordination, support diplomatic solutions to regional conflicts

China called on members of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) to play a greater role in promoting peace and stability in the Middle East amid escalating regional tensions, according to state-run media.

Addressing a meeting of his SCO colleagues in Tianjin late Tuesday, Foreign Minister Wang Yi said the group should uphold its commitment to regional security and contribute to diplomatic efforts aimed at easing conflicts in the Middle East.

According to China Daily, Wang urged SCO member states to promote peace and stability in the Middle East and support political and diplomatic solutions to regional disputes.
