
CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTER TO VISIT NORDIC NATIONS THIS WEEK TO BOLSTER TIES

- 30.06.2026

Anadolu Agency (30 June 2026)

China's foreign minister will pay an official visit to four Nordic countries this week as Beijing seeks to deepen political engagement and expand cooperation with the region amid evolving global geopolitical and economic dynamics.

Wang Yi will visit Denmark, Sweden, Finland, and Norway on July 2-8 at the invitation of their foreign ministers, Foreign Ministry spokesperson Guo Jiakun said Tuesday.

Guo said the four countries were among the first European nations to recognize the Peoples Republic of China and establish diplomatic relations, giving both sides a profound history of friendly ties.
