
CENTRAL ASIA'S POWER EXPANSION BECOMES A MAJOR INVESTMENT TEST

-

03.07.2026

EuroNews (3 July 2026)

Dilbar Primova

In Uzbekistan, EBRD-backed solar and battery projects are helping finance rising electricity demand. Grid upgrades and a first nuclear plant are also reshaping the country's future energy mix.

Uzbekistan plans to increase electricity generation from 82 billion kilowatt-hours to more than 120 billion kilowatt-hours within the next five years, turning the power sector into one of the country's biggest investment tests.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: