Türkiye and Iraq discussed steps to increase bilateral trade to $30 billion during talks in Ankara on Wednesday, Turkish Trade Minister Omer Bolat said.

Bolat met with Iraqi Ambassador to Ankara Majid Abdul Ridha Hassan Al-Lachmawi, according to a statement he posted on the Turkish social media platform NSosyal.

The two discussed efforts to implement agreements reached during Iraqi Prime Minister Ali Fali al-Zeydis visit to Türkiye last month, the Turkish trade minister said.
