
TASC TV'S 'MYTHS-REALITIES' SERIES

13.01.2023

Since February 2021, the TV channel of the Turkish American National Steering Committee (TASC) has been airing the Myths-Realities series. The series, hosted by Ergün Kırlikovalı (member of the Board of Trustees and former President of the Assembly of Turkish American Associations - ATAA), deals with the various aspects of the historical controversy between Turks and Armenians over the 1915 Events. As an example, Episode 22 deals with James Bryce, the infamous British propagandist who played a significant role in producing and disseminating anti-Ottoman Empire and Turcophobic propaganda during the First War War.
