Jack Straw was foreign secretary of the United Kingdom from 2001 to 2006.

The bloc should have put accession on ice and made it clear to both sides that only a united island would be allowed to join.

It was recently reported that two houses in an exclusive enclave near Moscow had been purchased for Russian President Vladimir Putins daughters by a Cypriot company named Ermira, which was officially owned by a Russian lawyer, but in reality it belonged to Putin.

The close association between Russia and the Greek-Cypriot Republic of Cyprus(*) is long standing, all pervasive and, many believe, rather unhealthy. But what is the solution to this problem?
