Kabar (14 March 2024)

A B5+1 format forum with the participation of government and business community officials of the Central Asian countries □ Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Turkmenistan, and the US kicked off in Almaty, Kazinform News Agency correspondent reports.

The event brought together over 200 experts and investors from the five Central Asian countries and the US to boost cooperation and improve the business environment through partnership aimed at economic prosperity of the region.

A B5+1 initiative is set to provide active cooperation between business communities and governments of the Central Asian countries with the participation of the US. The forum is to discuss key economic issues as well as produce concrete steps to address them and will officially start the V+1 platform presented at the Summit of the Heads of State in New York in September 2023.
