Baku on Tuesday denounced the claims recently made by Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan as false and misleading.

Claims by the Armenian premier in his article published at Armenpress on Feb. 10, about alleged preparations by Azerbaijan for an attack against Armenia, on purposes of the Western Azerbaijan Community, as well as many other baseless allegations are made to distort the reality and deceive the global community, the Azerbaijani Foreign Ministry spokesman, Aykhan Hajizada, said in a statement, News.Az reports.

Interestingly, the Prime Minister who is advocating for the right to have military capabilities, represents a country that in addition to 30 years of military occupation, throughout three years since the end of the 44-day war kept more than ten thousand strong-armed formations equipped with heavy weaponry in the territory of Azerbaijan, despite the commitment it undertook under the Trilateral Statement, he stated.
