Azerbaijans President Ilham Aliyev on Monday received a delegation of Pakistan led by Sardar Ayaz Sadiq, Speaker of the National Assembly.

The head of state emphasized the excellent level of political relations between the two countries, noting that bilateral ties are based on brotherhood, mutual support, and solidarity, News.Az reports, citing AZERTAC.

President Ilham Aliyev fondly recalled the participation of Pakistans Prime Minister Muhammad Shehbaz Sharif in the 17th Summit of the Economic Cooperation Organization (ECO) in Khankendi a few days ago, as well as their meeting, during which extensive discussions on the bilateral agenda were held. The President highlighted that this was not the Prime Ministers first visit to Azerbaijan's liberated territories, recalling Muhammad Shehbaz Sharifs trip to Lachin in May this year and his participation in an event marking Azerbaijan's Independence Day.
