I hope that cooperation between the countries of the South Caucasus will continue, which will bring significant results to all three countries and the region as a whole, said Georgian Foreign Minister Maka Bochorishvili, APA's local bureau reports.

She recalled that the first trilateral meeting between the deputy foreign ministers of Georgia, Azerbaijan, and Armenia was held in Tbilisi this year.

The minister noted that the purpose of the meeting was to lay the foundation for mutually beneficial cooperation between the countries of the region.
