Pakistan on Thursday said it was ready to provide landlocked Kyrgyzstan access to regional and global markets through its three seaports.

"Kyrgyzstan is a landlocked country... Pakistan, as a gateway to the Indian Ocean, stands ready... to provide Kyrgyz Republic access to regional and global markets through our ports of Karachi Port, Qasim Port, and Gwadar Port," Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif announced during a joint news conference with visiting Kyrgyz President Sadyr Zhaparov in the capital, Islamabad.

Earlier, Zhaparov, who is the first Kyrgyz head of state to visit Islamabad in 20 years, held talks with Sharif at the Prime Minister's Office. Pakistan's army chief Gen. Asim Munir was also present in the meeting.
