The EU enlargement process and the sustainable consolidation of European principles and values in EU candidate countries were the focus of a meeting between Prime Minister Rumen Radev and European Commissioner for Enlargement Marta Kos, the government press office reported. Marta Kos visited Bulgaria to attend an international ministerial conference on Pan-European Corridor VIII.

During the meeting Prime Minister Radev and Marta Kos agreed that connectivity in the Balkans is a key priority not only for the countries in the region but also for the European Commission, which provides financial support for a number of projects in this area. They highlighted the importance of accelerating the construction of the corridor and the expansion of transport, energy and digital networks, which are a key factor in the development of Southeastern Europe.
