INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

REVIEW OF ARMENIAN STUDIES

A Quarterly Journal of History, Politics and International Relations

Information For Contributors

Review of Armenian Studies accepts original articles, which are not under consideration by another publication at the time of submission. Articles as a rule should not exceed 8.500 words in length (maximum 3.500 words for book reviews), should be free from jargon and should be written as clearly and concisely as possible. Unsolicited articles cannot be returned. Accepted articles must conform to Review of Armenian Studies style requirements. Please submit articles to: The Editors, Review of Armenian Studies, Konrad Adaneuer Cad., No. 61, Yıldız, Çankaya, Ankara, Turkey or e-mail to info@eraren.org

Submissions: Authors should submit four typed copies of their manuscript along with a file copy of the manuscript saved on a floppy disc. Where possible, the file should be saved in the Word for Windows or RTF. Whichever is used please indicate this clearly on the disc itself. Alternatively the journal accepts submissions by e-mail using one of the above formats. If e-mail is used then please be sure that you receive a confirmation from the Institute. The authors should send A about 100-word abstract of their studies and list of the keywords of the article, which should not be less than 10 keywords.

Presentation: Manuscripts should be one-and-half or double-spaced throughout (including all quotations and footnotes) and typed in English or Turkish on single sides of paper. Generous margins on both sides of the page should be allowed. Pages should be numbered consecutively. The author should retain a copy, as submitted manuscripts cannot be returned. Full names of the author(s) should be given, an address for correspondence, and where possible a contact telephone number, facsimile number and e-mail address. Current and recent academic and professional affiliations should be supplied for inclusion in Notes on Contributors, together with a list of major publications and forthcoming books.

Titles and Sub-Titles: Titles in the article should be 12 punt, bold and in uppercase form. The subtitles should be 12 punt and in title case form.

Footnotes: In the case of books the following order should be observed: author, title, (place of publishing; publisher, year). For example:

1. Türkkaya Ataöv, A Statement Wrongly Attributed to Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, (Ankara: Sistem Ofset, 1984), p. 16.
2. Ataöv, A Statement...., p. 22.
3. Charles van der Leeuw, 'Newly Independent Azerbaijan: Ever-Present Gunsmoke and the Kremlin's Long Arm', in Antero Leitzinger (ed.), Caucasus and an Unholy Alliance, (Vantaa: Leitzinger Books, 1997), pp. 48-52.
4. Arslan Terzioğlu, 'The Assassination of Dr. Bahaddin Sakir...', Armenian Studies, Vol. 1, No. 3, September-October-November 2001, pp. 274-304.
5. www.mfa.gov.tr/OrtaAsya/aciklama123.htm, 24 February 2002.

Proofs: Please note that authors are expected to correct and return proofs of accepted articles within two weeks of receipt. Authors are responsible for ensuring that their manuscripts conform to the journal style. The Editors will not undertake retyping of manuscripts before publication.
