

Contributors

— Mustafa Oğuz DEMİRALP —

Mustafa Oğuz Demiralp, (January 22, 1952, İstanbul), Turkish diplomat, Ambassador (R). Graduated from the Lycée Saint-Joseph, French High School in İstanbul on July 1971 and the Middle Eastern Technical University on January 1976. He served as Special Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs (1997-2000); Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the World Trade Organization (WTO) (2000-2002), Vice President of the UN Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) Council, Chairman of the WTO Trade and Investment Working Group, Chairman of the WTO Trade and Environment Committee; Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the European Union (EU) (2002-2005); Ambassador/Secretary General for EU Affairs (2005-2009); Ambassador to Bern (2009-2010); Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the UN Geneva Office (2010-2013) and Ambassador to Mexico (2014-2017). Speaks English and French. He is married and has two children.

Contact: ouzdemiralp@yahoo.com

— Burak TEKİN —

Burak Tekin completed his undergraduate and graduate studies at Yaşar University. He earned his master's degree with the thesis titled "The Right to Respect for Private and Family Life within the Scope of the ECHR." He is currently pursuing a PhD in Public Law at the same university. Tekin serves as a lecturer at the International Final University. His research interests include international human rights law, the procedural law of the European Court of Human Rights, constitutional law, and genocide studies.

Contact: buraktekin@final.edu.tr

— Baki Burak ACIL —

Baki Burak Acil received a PhD from the Department of Art History at Anadolu University. The research examines the historical and political dimensions of vandalism against works of art in Türkiye from the late Ottoman period to the present, with a particular focus on iconoclastic interventions, censorship practices, and practices of symbolic violence against monuments, sculptures, and visual representations. Baki Burak Acil holds a BA from the Department of Architecture at Middle East Technical University and an MA from the History of Art program at Istanbul Technical University. The doctoral dissertation explores how public art is shaped as a site of ideological struggle, memory politics, and resistance. In addition to academic work, Baki Burak Acil has published and presented on gender, visual culture, and political memory, and also works in the cultural field as an architect specializing in the accessibility of stations at the Turkish State Railways.

Contact: bakiburakacil@anadolu.edu.tr

Caner ÇAKI

He was born in 1989 in Bafra. He graduated from Department of Public Relations and Advertising of Communication Faculty of the Karadeniz Technical University (Trabzon/Türkiye) in 2012. He completed his master's in Department of Communication Sciences of Inonu University (Malatya/Türkiye) in 2016. Then he completed his doctorate in the Department of Communication Sciences Faculty of Erciyes University (Kayseri/Türkiye) in 2021. He has worked as a research assistant at Inonu University between 2015-2021. His interest areas are propaganda, political communication, social media and public relations. He has studies on the propaganda activities in Nazi Germany, the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China. He published studies on propaganda activities in certain national and international journals. He is editor of three books titled "Propaganda and Communication", "Propaganda Music in Turkish Political Life" and "Propaganda Studies in Turkish Political Life".

Contact: caner.caki@ahievran.edu.tr

Çağatay BALCI

He graduated from the Department of International Relations at the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Selçuk University, in 2015. In 2018, he completed a Master's degree in Intelligence Studies at the Police Academy Institute of Security Sciences, writing his thesis on the topic of 'Intelligence Structure in the Islamic Republic of Iran'. In 2023, he completed his doctoral studies in the International Security and Terrorism Programme at the Alparslan Defence Sciences and National Security Institute of the National Defence University. He currently works as a researcher at the Centre for Iranian Studies (İRAM), focusing on Iran's regional policies, security structures, relations with non-state armed actors, and strategic communication activities.

Contact: cagataybalci@iramcenter.org

Yeter SOLAK

Yeter Solak, graduated from the Department of Public Administration at Muğla Sıtkı Koçman University in 2014. In 2017, she completed her master's degree at the same university with the thesis titled "Civil Disobedience within the Framework of the Views of David Henry Thoreau and Mahatma Gandhi", earning the title of Master of Science. In 2024, she received her doctoral degree from the Department of Public Administration at Muğla Sıtkı Koçman University with the dissertation entitled "The American Enlightenment and Thomas Paine". Since 2002, she has been working as a lecturer at Osmaniye Korkut Ata University. She is married and the mother of one son. Her research interests include political science, Turkish political life, and political philosophy.

Contact: yetersolak@osmaniye.edu.tr

Aykut AYDENİZ

Aykut Aydeniz graduated with high honors from the Department of Political Science and Public Administration at Middle East Technical University (METU) in 2017. He also successfully completed a minor program in the Department of International Relations. In 2020, he earned his master's degree from the Department of International Relations at METU with his thesis titled "World Trade Organization (WTO) Reform and Türkiye". Currently, he is pursuing a PhD at Hacettepe University in the Department of International Relations.

Aydeniz began his professional career in March 2018 as an Assistant Specialist at the Ministry of Economy. He received the specialist title in June 2020 by completing his thesis titled "Commercial Diplomacy and Türkiye's Situation in Light of New Perspectives and Developments". He served in the Technical Advisory Team at the Ministry between August 2023 and July 2025. As of July 2025, he has been serving as a Commercial Counsellor at Türkiye's Permanent Representation to the WTO.

Contact: aykutaydeniz@hacettepe.edu.tr

Mehmet BİRLİK

Mehmet Birlik (October 24, 1964, Adapazarı-Sakarya) graduated from Adapazarı Ozanlar High School in 1981 and from Anadolu University, Faculty of Business Administration, Department of Business, in 1986. He began his career at the Turkish Electricity Authority (TEK) in 1989 and currently serves as Chief at TEİAŞ Sakarya 5th Regional Directorate. He is pursuing his master's degree in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration at Sakarya University. He has proficiency in English. He is married and has one child.

Contact: mehmet.birlik1@ogr.sakarya.edu.tr