A new round of talks with the aim of achieving a lasting solution for the Cyprus question will take place later this month in the U.S. in a 5-plus-1 informal format, Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC) President Ersin Tatar said Tuesday.

"We confirmed that we will be ready for the expanded 5-plus-1 meeting in New York on July 16-17. Of course, we consulted with Türkiye on these processes," Tatar said at a news conference following his meeting with the special representative of the U.N. secretary-general in Cyprus, Maria Angela Holguin Cuellar, and the head of the U.N. Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus mission, Colin Stewart.

The TRNC has never abandoned its stance of dialogue, contact and a constructive approach, he added.
